

Preliminary population statistics

2013, February

Finland's preliminary population figure 5,429,894 at the end of February

According to Statistics Finland's preliminary data, Finland's population at the end of February was 5,429,894. Over the January to February period, Finland's population increased by 2,750 persons, which is 450 persons more than in the preliminary data for the corresponding period of the year before. The main reason for the population increase was migration gain from abroad: the number of immigrants was 2,400 higher than that of emigrants. Natural population growth, or excess of births to deaths, was 350 persons.
